Public Sale.

OF THE

Best Business and Residence Property in the City of Paris.

Having decided to move on my farm I herewith offer for sale at public auction on the premises on county courtday, at 2 o'clock, p. m., the following property:

MONDAY, DEC. 6, '09,

No. 1—The two story brick business house known as the Grosche house, fronting 28 feet and four inches on Main street, between Sixth and Seventh, and running back equal width 107 feet. This property has not been vacant for twelve years and adjoins the large department store of Mr. Harry Simon. Possession given at once.

No. 2—The two story brick business house on the corner of Main and Seventh streets, occupied and used by myself for the past seventeen years as a restaurant and bakery. This is without doubt the best business location in the city of Paris. Lot 33 feet on Main street running along with Seventh street 91 feet. Possession given January 1, 1910.

No. 3—The residence on the corner of High and Seventh street, opposite the Public Library. This is a two story brick of eight rooms, 10 foot cellar under the whole building; equipped with all modern improvements such as bath, gas and electric light, furnace, and a neat stable for two horses and vehicle in the rear. Lot 55 feet on High street running along on Seventh street 112 feet. There is no better built house or better location in the city of Paris. Possession given March 1, 1910.

No. 4—A three room house and large convenient stable, on Gano street, near Lillieston Avenue, in the city limits. The lot contains about three acres, two of which are first class truck garden land, balance on Houston creek. Possession March 1, 1910.

No. 5—Three room house and ten acres of good land just outside the city limits and adjoining lot No. 4. For a truck farm this little place can not be beat, being just on the edge of town, easily accessible and number one land. Possession at once.

All the above property will be in the hands of the auctioneer on day of sale. Perfect title guaranteed.

TERMS—Made known on day of sale, December 6, 1909.

Geo. D. Spence, Auct.

Food Versus Character.

Observe the various operations of food and drink in several nations. Was ever Tartar fierce and cruel? Upon the strength of water gruel? But who shall stand his rage and force? When first he rides, then eats his horse? Salads and eggs and lighter fare? Tune the Italian spack's guitar, And if I take Don Confuse right Pudding and beef make Britons fight.

Great Men of Low Birth.

Many of our greatest men were the sons of obscure parents. Thomas Moore was the son of a grocer, Rembrandt of a miller, Euripides of a fruiterer, Virgil of a baker, Horace of a freed slave, Anaxot of a currier, Voltaire of a tax-gatherer, Lamontagne of a hatter, Sixtus the Fifth of a swineherd, Fletcher of a chandler, Massillon of a turner, Tamerlane of a shepherd, Rollin of a herdsman, Rousseau of a watchmaker, Moliere of an upholsterer, Ben Johnson of a mason, Shakespeare of a butcher, Sir Thomas Lawrence of a custom-house officer, Collins of a hatter, Gray of a notary, Beattie of a farmer, Edward Sugden of a barber, Keats of a liveryman.
